The Heart Of The Cross:

Heart of the Cross Wonhee Anne Joh, 2006-01-01 Theologies have often pointed to the cross as a place of suffering and sacrifice while feminist critiques have frequently argued against interpretations of the cross as patriarchal valorizing of suffering Wonhee Anne Joh points toward a new interpretation of the cross as a place of love where God and humanity come together in a surprising way Interpreting the cross as performing a double gesture that has a subversive effect Joh argues that the cross works simultaneously to pay homage to and to menace complex oppressive powers Utilizing the Korean concept of jeong Joh constructs a theology that is feminist political and love centered while acknowledging the cross as source of pain and suffering Joh's innovative vision is a call for political love that is stronger than powers of oppression A Cross in the Heart of God Samuel Wells, 2020-11-30 The Canterbury Press Lent book for 2021 focuses on the significance of the story at the very centre of Christianity the crucifixion Samuel Wells writes as a theologian and pastor to explore the cross in the purposes of God and how this act brings about salvation Three sections each with six short chapters explore the cross in the Old Testament Covenant Test Passover Atonement Servant Sacrifice the Epistles Forgiveness Obedience Foolishness Example Reconciliation Boast the Gospels Finished Judged Betrayed Pierced Forsaken Mocked Written with characteristic clarity and wearing its considerable learning lightly A Cross at the Heart of God will give readers a comprehensive understanding of the story at the heart of scripture the central event in history and a core tenet of the Christian faith A study guide with questions and prayers makes this ideal for Lent groups as well as individual reading River, Cross My Heart Breena Clarke, 2017-08-01 The acclaimed bestseller a selection of Oprah's Book Club that brings vividly to life the Georgetown neighborhood of Washington DC circa 1925 and a community reeling from a young girl's tragic death When five year old Clara Bynum drowns in the Potomac River under a seemingly haunted rock outcropping known locally as the Three Sisters the community must reconcile themselves to the bitter tragedy Clarke powerful charts the fallout from Clara's death on the people she has left behind her parents Alice and Willie Bynum torn between the old world of their rural North Carolina home and the new world of the city the friends and relatives of the Bynum family in the Georgetown neighborhood they now call home and most especially Clara's sister ten year old Johnnie Mae who is thrust into adolescence and must come to terms with the terrible and confused emotions stirred by her sister's death This highly accomplished debut novel reverberates with ideas impassioned lyricism and poignant historical detail as it captures an essential and moving portrait of the Washington DC community The Cross and the Lynching Tree James H. Cone, 2011 A landmark in the conversation about race and religion in America They put him to death by hanging him on a tree Acts 10:39 The cross and the lynching tree are the two most emotionally charged symbols in the history of the African American community In this powerful new work theologian James H Cone explores these symbols and their interconnection in the history and souls of black folk Both the cross and the lynching tree represent the worst in human beings and at the same time a thirst for life that refuses to let the worst determine our final meaning While the lynching tree symbolized white power and black death the cross symbolizes divine power and black life God overcoming the power of sin and death For African Americans the image of Jesus hung on a tree to die powerfully grounded their faith that God was with them even in the suffering of the lynching era In a work that spans social history theology and cultural studies Cone explores the message of the spirituals and the power of the blues the passion and of Emmet Till and the engaged vision of Martin Luther King Jr he invokes the spirits of Billie Holliday and Langston Hughes Fannie Lou Hamer and Ida B Well and the witness of black artists writers preachers and fighters for justice And he remembers the victims especially the 5 000 who perished during the lynching period Through their witness he contemplates the greatest challenge of any Christian theology to explain how life can be made meaningful in the face of death and injustice
