The Highway War Seth W. B. Folsom, 2011 The Highway War is the compelling Iraq War memoir of then Capt Seth Folsom commanding officer of Delta Company First Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion U S Marine Corps Mounted in eight wheeled LAVs light armored vehicles this unit of 130 Marines and sailors was one of the first into Iraq in March 2003 It fought on the front lines for the war's entire offensive phase from the Kuwaiti border through Baghdad to Tikrit Folsom's thoughtful account focuses on his maturation as a combat leader and as a human being enduring the austere conditions of combat and coming to terms with loss of life on both sides Moreover The Highway War is the story of a junior officer's relationships with his company's young Marines for whose lives he was responsible and with his superior officers Folsom covers numerous unusual military actions and conveys truthfully the pace stress excitement mistakes and confusion of modern ground warfare The Highway War is destined to be a Marine Corps classic Where Youth and Laughter Go Seth William Bell Folsom, 2015-09-15 Where Youth and Laughter Go completes LtCol Seth Folsom's recounting of his personal experiences in command over a decade of war It is the culminating chapter of a trilogy that began with The Highway War A Marine Company Commander in Iraq in 2006 and continued with In the Gray Area A Marine Advisor Team at War in 2010 The chronicle of Folsom's command of 3rd Battalion 7th Marine Regiment The Cutting Edge and his harrowing deployment to Afghanistan's volatile Sangin District presents a deeper look into the complexities and perils of modern counterinsurgency operations in America's longest war Charged with the daunting task of pacifying a region with a long history of violence and instability Folsom and his Marines struggled daily to wage a dynamic campaign against the shadowy enemy force that held Sangin's population firmly in its grip With peace and stability always teetering on the brink of collapse the Marines of The Cutting Edge confronted their own mortality as they conducted endless patrols through Sangin's minefields while fighting to win the hearts and minds of the Afghan villagers No other books have been published from the perspective of a Marine infantry battalion commander in Afghanistan It was Folsom's job as the unit commander to lead his Marines under impossible circumstances LtCol Folsom made the unusual decision to patrol with his rifle squads every day through Sangin where his Marines dodged improvised explosive devices and sniper fire from an invisible enemy As his tour progressed and casualties mounted he found his objectivity evaporating and the love for his men growing Where Youth and Laughter Go is more than a blood and guts war story it is a jarring boots on the ground level examination of the myriad challenges and personal dilemmas that today's young service members face as the United States approaches its final endgame in Afghanistan The Battle of An-Nasiriyah Rod Andrew (Jr.), 2009 One Bullet Away Nathaniel Fick, 2006 An ex Marine captain shares his story of fighting in a recon battalion in both Afghanistan and Iraq beginning with his brutal training on Quantico Island and following his progress through various training sessions and ultimately conflict in the deadliest conflicts since the Vietnam War A Documentary History of Modern Iraq Stacy E. Holden, 2012-07-08 Previously published histories and primary source collections on the Iraqi experience tend to be topically focused or dedicated to presenting a top down approach. By contrast Stacy Holden's A Documentary History of Modern Iraq gives voice to ordinary Iraqis clarifying the experience of the Shiites, Sunnis, Kurds, Jews, and women over the past century. Through varied documents ranging from short stories to treaties, political speeches to memoirs and newspaper articles to book excerpts, the work synthesizes previously marginalized perspectives of minorities and women with the voices of the political elite to provide an integrated picture of political change from the Ottoman Empire in 1903 to the end of the second Bush administration in 2008. Covering a broad range of topics, this bottom up approach allows readers to fully immerse themselves in the lives of everyday Iraqis as they navigate regime shifts from the British to the Hashemite monarchy, the political upheaval of the Persian Gulf wars, and beyond. Brief introductions to each excerpt provide context and suggest questions for classroom discussion. This collection offers raw history, untainted and unfiltered by modern political framework and thought, representing a refreshing new approach to the study of Iraq.

From Storm to Freedom John R. Ballard, 2010-04-15 From Storm to Freedom analyzes and assesses the strategic interaction between Iraq and the United States from 1990 to 2009 from the perspective of a single, if discontinuous, conflict. With this longer term perspective covering both Operation Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom, the book clarifies the long road of war against Iraq. This work recounts the evolution of counterinsurgency operations from 2003 to 2009, explains the misunderstanding and miscommunication between government leaders in Iraq and the United States throughout the period, and describes the ineffective nature of the UN sanctions, the inefficient efforts of the Clinton Administration, and the impact of the preemptive strategy of the Bush Administration that led to conflict in 2002. The book first identifies the influence of the Vietnam era on the use of U.S. military power and the decision for war in 1990. The book then outlines the important factors of Iraqi history and culture which dominated relations between the two nations during the 1980s and 1990s. In subsequent chapters, the 1991 campaign of Desert Storm is analyzed from both the U.S. and Iraqi perspectives; then the military, economic, and diplomatic actions of the period between the two more conventional military parts of the conflict are assessed. The final chapters analyze the highly successful 2003 conventional campaign from both perspectives, the ineffective post-war stabilization operations in Iraq which began with the failure to transition under the Coalition Provisional Authority, and the eventual development and implementation of a more effective strategy in Iraq combining new doctrine and a Surge of forces to protect the population in a renewed counterinsurgency campaign. In a concluding chapter, the key lessons for the future are reviewed, including the importance of effective strategic decision making and the mindset required to prosecute modern war.

Geraghty,2009 On October 23 1983 nearly simultaneous suicide truck bombings killed 241 U S peacekeepers in their barracks at the Beirut International Airport BIA and 58 French paratroopers at their headquarters two miles north of BIA In this long awaited book the Marine Corps commander of the U S Multi National Peacekeeping Force that was destroyed by terrorists in Lebanon tells his story for the first time Together these suicide bombings comprised the largest nonnuclear explosion ever recorded and are now recognized as a seminal event leading to the current war on terrorism Such acts of war revealed a new highly effective tactic which complemented the terrorist s strategic goals the withdrawal of the peacekeepers and Western influence from Lebanon and a change in U S policy Peacekeepers at War lays out in detail a sequence of events leading up to the suicide truck bombings from which one can extrapolate the rationale motives and perpetrators behind it Geraghty argues that the absence of any retribution against the perpetrators emboldened the terrorists to assume they could attack Americans and Western interests with impunity This led to kidnappings torture and the murders of Americans and other Westerners Peacekeepers at War will be of interest to general readers who want to learn more about this seminal event and its effects on the current global war on terrorism

Nothing Here Worth Dying For Seth William Bell Folsom,2025-02-18 In this sharp challenging memoir Col Seth Folsom lays bare the complexities of modern military combat advisor missions at the twilight of America s longest war Nothing Here Worth Dying For tells the story of his command of Task Force Lion a purpose built combat advisor team and his frenetic 2017 deployment to Iraq s Al Anbar Province Charged with the daunting task of advising assisting and enabling the Iraqi Security Forces in their fight against the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria Folsom and his team of Marines and sailors struggled to support their Iraqi partners in the Jazeera Operations Command while simultaneously grappling with their own leadership for their relevance on the battlefield Nothing Here Worth Dying For is the jarring coda to Folsom s nearly thirty years in uniform the last twenty of which he spent deploying to the long war in Iraq and Afghanistan Far from a jingoistic tale that celebrates Corps and Country this work challenges many of the popular assumptions about military command leadership loyalty and teamwork As with the author s previous books Nothing Here Worth Dying For focuses on individual Marine actions at the tactical and operational levels while also addressing regional events that contributed to the overall narrative of the U S war in Iraq Folsom describes his unpopular decision to prioritize his team members and their mission to support the Iraqi army above the desires of his own military service branch As the final operation against ISIS in western Al Anbar gained steam he questioned the wisdom of the military leadership to which he had dedicated his entire adult life Despite his disillusionment he committed himself to the men and women under his command who fought against the odds to accomplish a crucial mission At its core this is a story about teamwork and the bonds that develop when men and women risk their lives and reputations together As the United States struggles once more to extricate itself from Iraq this book will be a timely addition to the existing body of work about the war

God Willing Eric Navarro, 2008 Ten U S Marines are assigned to live train and go into battle with more than five hundred raw and undisciplined Iraqi soldiers A member of this Adviser Support Team Capt Eric Navarro recounts their tour in vivid and brutally honest detail Their deployment comes at a particularly important time in the war The Battle of Fallujah is raging and President Bush has proclaimed training the Iraqi forces is the key to winning the war Once they stand up we can stand down or so the theory goes Navarro s team nicknamed The Drifters faces countless roadblocks no interpreters initially limited supplies little contact with other U S forces and a vast cultural gulf with the Iraqis One hackneyed and fatalistic Arabic phrase seems to sum up the mission Insha Allah which translates as God willing or if God wills it Whether riding into downtown Fallujah in an unarmored Nissan pick up truck living in squalor in abandoned buildings dodging trigger happy troops sharing FHM magazine with Iraqi soldiers to boost morale or getting attacked by insurgent rockets less than an hour after arriving life is never easy and more often surreal The Drifters trials and tribulations help shed light on this most under reported aspect of the war What is wrong with the new Iraqi Army The answer is not as pretty as the politicians would like

In the Gray Area Seth William Bell Folsom, 2010-09-15 In the Gray Area is a Marine officer s reflection of his tour of duty as the leader for an advisor team embedded with an Iraqi Army infantry battalion In February 2008 Major Folsom deployed to Iraq as Team Leader Military Transition Team 0733 During this deployment his advisor team was embedded with the 7th

Iraqi Army Division Tasked with the mission to train coach mentor and advise the new Iraqi Army s 3rd Battalion 28th Brigade the Marines of Military Transition Team 0733 the Outlanders quickly found the reality of their advisor mission fraught with challenges In the Gray Area explores the bond between Folsom and the fourteen men that comprised his advisor team as well as the tenuous relationship forged between the Marines and their Iraqi counterparts as they struggled to assume independent control of and maintain security in Iraq s western al Anbar province Highlighting the obstacles faced by Marine advisors as they live work eat and operate with an army whose language and culture are vastly different from their own Folsom creates a compelling picture of the challenges faced by the Marine Advisor Teams working with the Iraqi Army to drive al Qaeda from al Anbar In the Gray Area builds on Folsom s The Highway War his award winning memoir of his experience as the commanding officer of Delta Company First Light Armored Reconnaissance Battalion U S Marine Corps which was one of the first into Iraq in March 2003 In The Highway War he conveyed the stress excitement and uncertainty of modern ground warfare from the viewpoint of a young combat leader In the Gray Area centers on an Iraqi Army that is more mature and on the cusp of independence from its American partners and it takes place during a period in which there are increased calls for the United States to withdraw from Iraq In his new book Folsom shows his maturation as a commander as he thoughtfully details the difficulties posed by a possibly premature American departure from Iraq and questions if the advisor mission is really the key to our attempt to exit Iraq

With The 1st Marine Division In Iraq, 2003 Groen Michael S.,2018-11 With the 1st Marine Division in Iraq 2003 No Greater Friend No Worse EnemyThe events chronicled here capture the story of the Marines of the Blue Diamond as they prepared for war conquered and army and liberated a nation From across America and beyond they chose the demanding path to become Marines These Marines marched in the ranks of this national treasure that we call the 1st Marine Division And at a time when timid souls or cynical pundits grew loudest these men shouldered their weapons and moved without hesitation against the enemy Our victory was not inevitable It was the courage unselfishness and skill of the young men of Blue Diamond to whom we owe our victory Armor ,2008 My Hitch in Hell Lester I. Tenney,2018-10 Captured by the Japanese after the fall of Bataan Lester I Tenney was one of the very few who would survive the legendary Death March and three and a half years in Japanese prison camps With an understanding of human nature a sense of humor sharp thinking and fierce determination Tenney endured the rest of the war as a slave laborer in Japanese prison camps My Hitch in Hell is an inspiring survivor s epic about the triumph of human will despite unimaginable suffering This edition features a new introduction and epilogue by the author Marines at War Paolo G. Tripodi,Kelly Frushour,2016 Marines at War provides an understanding of what the experience of going to war was like for the veterans of the Afghanistan and Iraqi wars The essays are written by several Marines and a U S Navy chaplain who deployed with Marines in combat Though combat is probably the most powerful experience of being at war many other aspects are also important when comprehending fully what going to war is like Thus several essays deal with the broader experience of being deployed to a war zone and not necessarily with combat Many published books provide an excellent understanding of combat this book provides insight on the impact war makes on individuals overall The essays in this book convey that going to war is a complex phenomenon that begins before troops even arrive in a war zone and lasts well beyond the end of deployments Going to war makes an impact on individual servicemembers their immediate family and their larger military family their fellow Marines Provided by publisher
