The History Of The Green Howards:

The History of the Green Howards Geoffrey Powell, John S.W. Powell, 2015-10-30 Regimental histories abound but few can be as stirring as this story of the fortunes of the famous Yorkshire based Green Howards Raised in 1688 in response to a call for loyal troops the Green Howards have maintained their tradition of loyalty over the past 300 years winning many superb battle honours Their history reflects that of the British Army as there is hardly a major campaign that this Regiment has not been involved in the French Wars of 1697 1793 the American War of Independence Crimean War First and Second World Wars service in Suez Malaya Northern Ireland peacekeeping operations in Bosnia and the war in the Gulf This fine book brings the story of one of Britain's finest regiments right up to date

The History of the Green Howards Geoffrey Powell, 1992

The Green Howards Geoffrey Powell, 1983 19 fodregiment oprettedes i Taunton omr det af oberst Francis Luttrell og kan dateres tilbage til tiden omkring jarlen af Monmouths oprør og kamp ved Sedgemoor i 1686 Regimentet stiftede Wilhelm 3 af Oranien og 2 bataljoner oprettedes i 1689 af Thomas Erle of Charborough Park og sloges sammen med andre regimenter i Irland mod den tilbagekomne katolske kong Jakob 1 Navnet The Green Howards stammer fra 1738

The History of the Green Howards, 1954

Haig's Tower of Strength John Powell, 2018-09-30 This is the first biography of General Sir Edward Bulfin who rose to high rank despite his Catholic Irish republican background at a time when sensitivities were pronounced Not only that but by the outbreak of the Great War Bulfin was a brigade commander despite having not attended Sandhurst or Staff College and never commanding his battalion In his early career he was a protégé of Bullers and he made his name in the Boer War In 1914 Haig credited him with saving the day at First Ypres despite being wounded and gave him 28th Division Unable to get on with Gough he was sent home He raised the 60th London Division and took it to France Salonika and Egypt where Allenby chose him to command a corps His success against the Turks at Gaza Jerusalem and Megiddo justified Allenby's confidence Despite ruthlessly crushing disturbances in post war Egypt Bulfin's beliefs and background led him to refuse Churchill's order to command the police and army in Ireland A private man Bulfin left few letters and no papers and the author is to be congratulated on piecing together this fascinating biography of an enigmatic military figure

The History of the Green Howards Great Britain. Army. Princess of Wales's Own (Yorkshire Regiment), 1954

History of the Services of the 19th Regiment Now Alexandra Princess of Wales Own (Yorkshire Regiment) Major M.L. Ferrar, 2001-08-01 This regiment is more familiarly known as The Green Howards one of only four English and Welsh infantry regiments retaining their old title unaffected by the various amalgamations reamalgamations and disbandments that have decimated the British Army since the end of World War II It got its name from the days when regiments were known by the colonel's name In 1744 there were two Colonel Howard's Regiments on active service in the War of Austrian Succession one of which wore green facings to avoid confusion that regiment was referred to as Green Howards It came into existence on 19 November 1688 recruited from volunteers from Somerset and Devon the first regiment to be raised in England after the landing of Prince William of Orange soon to be William III two weeks earlier In 1751 the regiments were numbered and it became the 19th Regiment of Foot The regiment fought in the American War of Independence and in 1796 it sailed for India but was diverted to Ceylon where it was to spend the next twenty four years apart from a few short tours to India It was involved in the Kandian War and was one of three British regiments to qualify for the Ceylon Medal The regiment did not come home till 1820 by which time it had suffered 1 498 deaths in action and from disease It fought in the Crimea where it won its first two VCs at Sebastopol The regiment was back in India during the Mutiny of 1857 and now as the 1st Battalion it took part in the Hazara campaign of 1868 the Sudan Expedition of 1885 6 and in the Boer War where it won the regiment s third VC Its story ends with the battalion in Khartoum under orders for India where it would remain throughout the Great War The second battalion was formed in 1858 and the last three chapters cover its history Ireland India Burma the Tirah The account ends with the battalion back in England after an overseas tour of nineteen years sixteen of them in India An appendix lists the Regiment s succession of colonels and gives casualty details for the Crimea Egypt and the Sudan the Tirah and S Africa There is a good index In this edition the colour plates have been grouped together at the beginning of the book Yorkshire Vcs Alan Whitworth,2024-10-30 Today the Victoria Cross remains the supreme British award for bravery It takes precedence over all other awards and decorations During its 160 year history since the first of these medals were given for gallantry during the Crimean War in the 1850s 1 357 have been won and no less than 69 of them have gone to Yorkshiremen Alan Whitworth in this carefully researched and revealing account describes in graphic detail the exploits and the lives of this elite group of heroes The History of the Fiftieth Division, 1914-1919 Everard Wyrall,1939 Green Howards in the Great War H. C. Wylly,2007-11 The Fiftieth Division: 1914-1919 Everard Wyrall,2012-03-28 The 50th Northumbrian Division was a pre war Territorial TF division which recruited from Northumberland Durham and the North and East Ridings of Yorkshire The infantry battalions came from the Northumberland Fusiliers East Yorks Green Howards and Durham Light Infantry The division crossed to France on 16 April 1915 and by 23 April it had completed its concentration in the area of Steenvoorde about 14 miles west of Ypres the next day it was in action at St Julien during the German gas attacks and by the end of 4 May the day after the battle of St Julien ended it had suffered 3746 casualties The division had been given no period of acclimatisation which was given to all other divisions on arrival on the Western Front The division remained in the Ypres area till August 1916 when it moved down to the Somme to III Corps where it took part in the battles of Flers Courceleste Morval and the Transloy Ridges with losses of just over 4 000 The Somme offensive ended on 18 November 1916 but the division remained in that area till March 1917 when it moved up to the Arras sector where preparations were underway for a new offensive by Allenby s Third Army which 50 Division now joined It took part in First and Second Scarpe and the capture of Wancourt Ridge at a cost of 2750 casualties during the two weeks 11to 24 April The division did not enter the Third Ypres campaign till late in October 1917 in time to fight the Second

Battle of Passchendaele from 26 October to the end of the offensive on 10 November When the Germans launched their final offensive on 21 March 1918 50th Division was back on the Somme this time in Fifth Army and in that first week its casualties numbered nearly 3 500 In April it was with First Army at the Lys where it incurred further losses of 4 265 It was then one of the divisions sent down to the Aisne in the French sector with IX Corps for a rest it arrived in time for another major German attack on 27 May and by 6 June the division had lost almost 7 600 men It was pulled right back to the coast in the Dieppe area and completely reorganized This history was the last of the Great War divisional histories to be published written by the most prolific of all the Great War historians eight regimental and four divisional histories Wyrrall died just as he completed his task In this book he relies considerably on the war diaries and histories of various units on personal diaries letters experiences and anecdotes which together provide a history of the division s activities seen very much at unit level and in detail Appendices list all divisional and brigade commanders and the order of battle of units with changes A

Bibliography of Regimental Histories of the British Army Arthur S. White, 2013-02-04 This is one of the most valuable books in the armoury of the serious student of British Military history It is a new and revised edition of Arthur White s much sought after bibliography of regimental battalion and other histories of all regiments and Corps that have ever existed in the British Army This new edition includes an enlarged addendum to that given in the 1988 reprint It is quite simply indispensable British Military Operations in Egypt and the Sudan Harold E. Raugh Jr., 2008-05-02 The British Army s campaigns in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 were among the most dramatic and hard fought in British military history In 1882 the British sent an expeditionary force to Egypt to quell the Arabic Revolt and secure British control of the Suez Canal its lifeline to India The enigmatic British Major General Charles G Gordon was sent to the Sudan in 1884 to study the possibility of evacuating Egyptian garrisons threatened by Muslim fanatics the dervishes in the Sudan While the dervishes defeated the British forces on a number of occasions the British eventually learned to combat the insurrection and ultimately largely through superior technology and firepower vanquished the insurgents in 1898 British Operations in Egypt and the Sudan A Selected Bibliography enumerates and generally describes and annotates hundreds of contemporary current and hard to find books journal articles government documents and personal papers on all aspects of British military operations in Egypt and the Sudan from 1882 to 1899 Arranged chronologically and topically chapters cover the various campaigns focusing on specific battles leading military personalities and the contributions of imperial nations as well as supporting services of the British Army This definitive volume is an indispensable reference for researching imperialism colonial history and British military operations leadership and tactics The History of the King's Regiment (Liverpool) 1914-1919 Everard Wyrrall, 1935 The British Reconnaissance Corps in World War II Richard Doherty, 2007-03-27 Osprey s study of Britain s Reconnaissance Corps of World War II 1939 1945 Either creeping through the landscape or mounted in armored cars and Bren carriers Reconnaissance Regiments became a vital addition to all British infantry divisions After the disastrous defeat in France in 1940 at the hands of German forces with strong reconnaissance units mounted in light armored vehicles the Bartholomew Committee called for the formation of a British equivalent This was achieved by forming the new elite Reconnaissance Corps Their spearhead role meant that they were consistently at the forefront of all dramatic action and most famously served with the 1st and 6th Airborne at Arnhem and with the Chindits in Burma Within every theater of war ranging from the jungles to the deserts the Reconnaissance Corps made a critical contribution to the Allied war effort However with the disbandment of the Corps at the end of the war their record has been unjustly forgotten With a selection of rare and unpublished frontline photographs taken from private collections this fascinating new insight into a forgotten elite unit of the British Army recounts the experiences of those soldiers who operated ahead of the army throughout the course of the war The History of the Suffolk Regiment, 1914-1927 Charles Cecil Rowe Murphy, 1928

History of the Services of the 19th Regiment (Green Howards) 1688-1911 M.L. Ferrar, 1911 The Doomed Expedition Jack Adams, 1989-06-05 A gripping account of the disastrous first significant land encounter of WWII focusing on the areas of Narvik and Bod Mosjøen Namsos and Aandalsnes In the early hours of 9 April 1940 the Germans invaded Denmark and Norway Within twenty four hours Denmark was overwhelmed and the main Norwegian airfields and seaports were under German control Thus started the first confrontation in modern war in which combined operations on land sea and in the air were fully involved Reluctantly the Allies launched Anglo French landings in the Lofoten Islands and in Central Norway At the outset serious liaison command and above all communication problems arose The urgent military needs of the Norwegians with their King and government pursued by the Germans were tragically misrepresented and never fully understood by the Allied politicians On another level personality clashes between senior commanders further confused conditions in the field where lack of air cover supporting arms and equipment made the task of the comparatively few combatants almost impossible to perform Heroic battles and humiliating retreats led to the inevitable evacuation of an Allied expedition doomed from the start Canadian Expeditionary Force, 1914-1919 G.W.L. Nicholson, Mark Osborne Humphries, 2015-11-01 Colonel G W L Nicholson's Canadian Expeditionary Force 1914-1919 was first published by the Department of National Defence in 1962 as the official history of the Canadian Army's involvement in the First World War Immediately after the war ended Colonel A Fortescue Duguid made a first attempt to write an official history of the war but the ill fated project produced only the first of an anticipated eight volumes Decades later G W L Nicholson already the author of an official history of the Second World War was commissioned to write a new official history of the First Illustrated with numerous photographs and full colour maps Nicholson's text offers an authoritative account of the war effort while also discussing politics on the home front including debates around conscription in 1917 With a new critical introduction by Mark Osborne Humphries that traces the development of Nicholson's text and analyzes its legacy Canadian Expeditionary Force 1914-1919 is an essential resource for both professional historians and military history enthusiasts A History of the
