The Hope Of The Family A Dialogue With Cardinal Gerhard Müller:

The Hope of the Family Cardinal Gerhard Müller, 2014-10-07 Today the family is in crisis it is in crisis worldwide Pope Francis has said Young people don't want to get married they don't get married or they live together Marriage is in crisis and so the family is in crisis The main problem with the family in the Church today contends Gerhard Cardinal Müller is not the small number of civilly remarried divorced Catholics who want to receive Holy Communion It is the large number of Catholics who live together before marriage who marry civilly or who do not even bother with marriage as if these choices were sound options for Catholic living Furthering the problem is the widespread failure of married Catholics to understand marriage as a way of Christian discipleship In this engaging conversation Cardinal Müller one of Pope Francis top advisers in the Vatican addresses the challenges facing marriage and family life today The loss of faith in many traditionally Christian societies has led to a crisis In turn cohabitation civil marriage and divorce and civil remarriage further undermine faith because they harm the family as the domestic Church and the place of initial evangelization Thus the Church must undertake a robust new evangelization of the family sharing the fullness of truth about marriage and family in Christ encouraging families to worship and to pray together and helping them to witness by their lives the joy of the gospel Cardinal Müller stresses mercy and compassion in pastoral ministry with struggling Catholics but he does so without either contradicting the teaching of Jesus about divorce and remarriage or minimizing the power of grace to transform lives In this way he proclaims hope for the family rooted in the gospel of Jesus Christ

Christ A Culture of Engagement Cathleen Kaveny, 2016 Religious traditions in the United States are characterized by ongoing tension between assimilation to the broader culture as typified by mainline Protestant churches and defiant rejection of cultural incursions as witnessed by more sectarian movements such as Mormonism and Hassidism However legal theorist and Catholic theologian Cathleen Kaveny contends there is a third possibility a culture of engagement that accommodates and respects tradition It also recognizes the need to interact with culture to remain relevant and to offer critiques of social political legal and economic practices Kaveny suggests that rather than avoid the crisscross of the religious and secular spheres of life we should use this conflict as an opportunity to come together and to encounter challenge contribute to and correct one another Focusing on five broad areas of interest Law as a Teacher Religious Liberty and Its Limits Conversations about Culture Conversations about Belief and Cases and Controversies Kaveny demonstrates how thoughtful and purposeful engagement can contribute to rich constructive and difficult discussions between moral and cultural traditions This provocative collection of Kaveny s articles from Commonweal magazine substantially revised and updated from their initial publication provides astonishing insight into a range of hot button issues like abortion assisted suicide government sponsored torture contraception the Ashley Treatment capital punishment and the role of religious faith in a pluralistic society At turns masterful and inspirational A Culture of Engagement is a welcome reminder of what can be gained when a diversity of experiences and beliefs is brought to bear on American public life Love, Joy, and Sex Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-07-30 There is no papal document that has generated as much interest controversy and debate in recent times as Pope Francis s Amoris Laetitia This document which came out of two very divisive synods of Catholic bishops and leaders in Rome in 2014 and 2015 will probably be the most discussed document ever produced by a pope in modern Catholicism on marriage and family life This volume has gathered seminal commentaries on Amoris Laetitia by African Catholic theologians social scientists and pastoral workers They offer African theological and pastoral responses to the principles and practices proposed by Pope Francis and the Synod on the family on such contested issues as same sex relations divorce and remarriage and reception and denial of Holy Communion in the church among other divisive issues These important essays and commentaries show the strengths and weaknesses of this papal commentary and point out the missing link in the global conversation on marriage family and same sex relations Their argument for the inclusion of African perspectives and moral traditions in the search for a third way in finding an inclusive and integrated pastoral art of accompaniment is very compelling The authors here also call for the inclusion of Africa s own unique challenges like polygamy childless marriages and the impact of migration civil conflict diseases ecological and population crises and the rights of African women in the global discussion on marriage and family life They also challenge uncritical clichés in world Christianity that Africa s opposition to same sex marriages or Western propaganda about population or birth control and contraception are conservative while showing diverse African conversations on these topics in the search for abundant life on this beautiful continent Catholic Theology Tracey

Sacred Marriages David Mullins,2018-06-14 This book represents a new direction in the study of religion and marriage by using a postmodern theoretical framework focusing on gendered discourse and culture to examine the meaning of sacred marriage within social contexts Drawing upon data from in depth interviews of couples in long term sacred marriages living in the American Midwest together with an analysis of Christian marriage advice manuals Sacred Marriages explores how couples use religious and nonreligious discourses and cultures to give their marriages meaning and how those sacred meanings are used in their daily lives and the spaces that they embody The study shows how religious and secular beliefs are combined to formulate cultural strategies for approaching the sacralization of marriage and how religious and nonreligious discourses and cultures are ordered depending on circumstances and social contexts This often results in other relationships being subordinated in favour of the sacred bond believed to exist between husband and wife The book argues that sacred marriage is a malleable concept as people bend religious culture to form new and altered sacred marriages during emotional extremes A thoughtful examination of long term Christian marriages this volume will appeal to scholars of religion and sociology with interests in marriage and the family

The Power of Silence Robert Sarah,2017-03-30 Now with a new afterword by Pope emeritus Benedict XVI In a time when technology penetrates our lives in so many ways and materialism exerts such a powerful influence over us Cardinal Robert Sarah presents a bold book about the strength of silence The modern world generates so much noise he says that seeking moments of silence has become both harder and more necessary than ever before Silence is the indispensable doorway to the divine explains the cardinal in this profound conversation with Nicolas Diat Within the hushed and hallowed walls of the La Grande Chartreux the famous Carthusian monastery in the French Alps Cardinal Sarah addresses the following questions Can those who do not know silence ever attain truth beauty or love Do not wisdom artistic vision and devotion spring from silence where the voice of God is heard in the depths of the human heart After the international success of God or Nothing Cardinal Sarah seeks to restore to silence its place of honor and importance Silence is more important than any other human work he says for it expresses God The true revolution comes from silence it leads us toward God and others so as to place ourselves humbly and generously at their service Cardinal Müller Report Carlos Granados,2017 This is an exclusive interview of Cardinal Müller the head of the Vatican Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith and one of the most outstanding Catholic figures in theology today As a theologian he strives to give God's answers to men's questions As the Prefect of the CDF he has a privileged perspective on the worldwide state of the Church on doctrinal moral and theological matters and the questions Catholics and others have today on those matters But what questions do our contemporaries have And what answers do they demand from the believer People today do not see their lack of faith as a tragedy but what does worry them profoundly is their lack of hope for which making matters worse they try to make up with shallow substitutes like optimism The key question today therefore is one of hope And they wonder whether there is hope for the now they wonder whether they can find it in Christianity and they wonder above all What is the foundation of Christian hope This interview with Cardinal Müller therefore takes hope as its basic subject it is a report on hope It is an in depth discussion of hope in relation to faith and love and in relation to Jesus Christ the Church the family and contemporary society The Pope Gerhard Cardinal
