The Ignorance Of Faith The Ignorance Of Faith:

Good Faith and Truthful Ignorance Alexandra Parma Cook, Noble David Cook, 1991 Good Faith and Truthful Ignorance uncovers from history the fascinating and strange story of Spanish explorer Francisco Noguero de Ulloa in 1556 accompanied by his second wife Francisco returned to his home in Spain after a profitable twenty year sojourn in the new world of Peru However unlike most other rich conquistadores who returned to the land of their birth Francisco was not allowed to settle into a life of leisure Instead he was charged with bigamy and illegal shipment of silver was arrested and imprisoned Francisco's first wife thought long dead had filed suit in Spain against her renegade husband So begins the labyrinthine legal tale and engrossing drama of an explorer and his two wives skillfully reconstructed through the expert and original archival research of Alexandra Parma Cook and Noble David Cook Drawing on the remarkable records from the trial the narrative of Francisco's adventures provides a window into daily life in sixteenth century Spain as well as the mentality and experience of conquest and settlement of the New World Told from the point of view of the conquerors Francisco's story reveals not only the lives of the middle class and minor nobility but also much about those at the lower rungs of the social order and relations between the sexes In the tradition of Carlo Ginzberg's The Cheese and the Worms and Natalie Zemon Davis The Return of Martin Guerre Good Faith and Truthful Ignorance illuminates an historical period the world of sixteenth century Spain and Peru through the wonderful and unusual story of one man and his two wives Holy Ignorance Olivier Roy, 2013 Instead of freeing the world from religion secularization has encouraged a kind of holy ignorance to take root This book explores the options available to powers that hope to integrate or control these groups and whether marginalization or homogenization will further divide believers from their culture The Epistemic Dimensions of Ignorance Rik Peels, Martijn Blaauw, 2016-12-22 The book provides a thorough exploration of the epistemic dimensions of ignorance what is ignorance and what are its varieties The Future of Faith Harvey Gallagher Cox, 2009-08-19 Legendary Harvard religion scholar Harvey Cox offers up a new interpretation of the history and future of religion Cox identifies three fundamental shifts over the last 2 000 years of church history The Age of Faith was when the early church was more concerned with following Jesus teachings than enforcing what to believe about Jesus The Age of Belief marks a significant shift between the fourth and twentieth centuries when the church focused on orthodoxy and right beliefs The Age of the Spirit that began in the 1960s and is shaping not just Christianity but other religious traditions today is ignoring dogma and breaking down barriers between different religions Spirituality is replacing formal religion Reflecting on how his own faith journey mirrors these three historical shifts Cox personalizes the material in a compelling practical way The Future of Faith is a major statement by one of the most revered theologians today Islam Unveiled Robert Spencer, 2003-11-25 In Islam Unveiled Robert Spencer dares to face the hard questions about what the Islamic religion actually teaches and the potentially ominous implications of those teachings for the future of both the Muslim world and the West Going beyond the shallow distinction between a true peaceful Islam and the hijacked Islam of terrorist groups Spencer probes the Koran and Islamic traditions as well as the history and present day situation of the Muslim world as part of his inquiry into why the world's fastest growing faith tends to arouse fanaticism Islam Unveiled evaluates the relationship between Islamic fundamentalism and mainstream Islam the fixation with violence and jihad the reasons for Muslims' disturbing treatment of women and devastating effects of Muslim polygamy and Islamic divorce laws Spencer explores other daunting questions why the human rights record of Islamic countries is so unrelievedly grim and how the root causes of this record exist in basic Muslim beliefs why science and high culture died out in the Muslim world and why this is a root cause of modern Muslim resentment He evaluates what Muslims learn from the life of Muhammad the man that Islam hails as the supreme model of human behavior Above all this provocative work grapples with the question that most preoccupies us today can Islam create successful secularized societies that will coexist peacefully with the West's multicultural mosaic

Islam, 2018-05-15 As the faith tradition of 1.6 billion people globally Islam is the second largest and fastest growing of all the world's religions Still many in the West harbor misconceptions about its people practices and beliefs Through rich and thorough exploration Natana DeLong-Bas's Islam A Living Faith challenges ignorance with facts and false impressions with stories of lived faith Weaving personal narratives with major historical and contemporary events and developments DeLong-Bas skillfully and sensitively conveys the teachings people and practices of the Islamic faith This introduction includes sections on the Five Pillars the Qur'an and the legacy of Muhammad as well as on the origin of sectarian identities the purpose of Shariah and Islamic law the mystical tradition of Sufism and Muslim-Christian relations Stocked with terms definitions and recommendations for additional resources Islam A Living Faith is perfect for use in the classroom

God Is Not Great Christopher Hitchens, 2008-11-19 Christopher Hitchens described in the London Observer as one of the most prolific as well as brilliant journalists of our time takes on his biggest subject yet the increasingly dangerous role of religion in the world In the tradition of Bertrand Russell's Why I Am Not a Christian and Sam Harris's bestseller The End Of Faith Christopher Hitchens makes the ultimate case against religion With a close and erudite reading of the major religious texts he documents the ways in which religion is a man-made wish-a cause of dangerous sexual repression and a distortion of our origins in the cosmos With eloquent clarity Hitchens frames the argument for a more secular life based on science and reason in which hell is replaced by the Hubble Telescope's awesome view of the universe and Moses and the burning bush give way to the beauty and symmetry of the double helix

How Christianity Changed the World Alvin J. Schmidt, 2009-12-15 Western civilization is becoming increasingly pluralistic secularized and biblically illiterate Many people today have little sense of how their lives have benefited from Christianity s influence often viewing the church with hostility or resentment How Christianity Changed the World is a topically arranged Christian history for Christians and non Christians Grounded in solid research and written in a popular style this book is both a helpful apologetic tool in talking with unbelievers and a source of evidence for why Christianity deserves credit for many of the humane social scientific and cultural advances in the Western world in the last two thousand years Photographs timelines and charts enhance each chapter This edition features questions for reflection and discussion for each chapter

Breaking the Idols of Ignorance: Admonition of the Soi-Distant Sufi Sadr al-Din Shirazi, 2008-01-01 This work marks the meeting point of three different traditions of the Shi i Islamic thought philosophical mystical and theological In this book Mulla Sadra masterfully analyses the creed of false mystics and those groups of philosophers whom he named as disgraceful impious sophists The work deals with the most crucial issues of metaphysics encompassing ontology cosmology epistemology psychology and spiritual wayfaring the attributes of the pious and some homiletic advice It stresses the importance of virtue and spiritual exercises on the true Sufi path while presenting Mulla Sadra s own metaphysical commentary inspired by the Holy Qur an

The Impossible Faith James Patrick Holding, 2007-05 A Thesis So Explosive An Atheist

Paid 5 000 for An Answer The Impossible Faith offers the proposition that Christianity could not have succeeded unless it had indisputable proof of the resurrection of Jesus Had there not been such evidence Christianity would have been an impossible faith Using his seventeen years of experience in apologetics ministry the author will demonstrate the impossibility of Christianity in the eyes of the people of the first century and present an apologetic for Jesus resurrection Christians will be encouraged and emboldened by the message of The Impossible Faith realizing how firm a foundation they have in Christ Jesus Non Christians will be challenged to consider the truth of Christianity in a new light The arguments in this book are so powerful that one atheist paid over 5 000 for a response It is impossible to estimate the evangelistic impact that is possible because of The Impossible Faith James Patrick Holding is President of Tekton Apologetics Ministries one of the leading apologetics ministries on the Internet Tekton Apologetics Ministries was recommended by apologist and prominent author Lee Strobel on Hank Hanegraaff s The Bible Answerman in December 2001 Holding has written over 1700 articles for his ministry as well as articles for the Christian Research Journal and for the publications of Creation Ministries International He has also published The Mormon Defenders How Latter Day Saint Apologists Misinterpret the Bible He lives in Central Florida with his beloved wife and a very small very spoiled poodle

Agnostic-Ish Josh Buoy,2016-04-09 This is a book about science religion and the world in between I was born into a Christian family but fell out of religion and in love with the scientific method I had little need of faith I thought when science could tell me so much more about the world and ask so little of me in return But as I aged into young adulthood a new chapter of my story began Did I really know why I believed what I believed How could I be so certain of my convictions when I hadn t even honestly considered the evidence This book traces my journey through the furthest reaches of thought a journey that took me through the realms of psychology biology physics and belief Could I find a place for faith in the modern world Or was I right to cast it off as I did
