The Holy Land in Classic Lithographs David Roberts, 2003-03-28 These magnificent illustrations of biblical landscapes and monuments by one of the first nineteenth century artists to travel throughout the Holy Land remain as beloved and popular as they were when first published more than 160 years ago The collection includes handsome reproductions of The Damascus Gate The Tower of David The Exterior of the Holy Sepulchre The Dead Sea Bethlehem El Deir The Convent at Petra and 18 other subjects Attractive message bearers ideal for framing Captions White Field, Black Sheep Daiva Markelis, 2010-11-15 Her parents never really explained what a D P was Years later Daiva Markelis learned that displaced person was the designation bestowed upon European refugees like her mom and dad who fled communist Lithuania after the war Growing up in the Chicago suburb of Cicero though Markelis had only heard the name T P since her folks pronounced the D as a T In first grade we had learned about the Plains Indians who had lived in tent like dwellings made of wood and buffalo skin called teepees In my childish confusion I thought that perhaps my parents weren't Lithuanian at all but Cherokee I went around telling people that I was the child of teepees So begins this touching and affectionate memoir about growing up as a daughter of Lithuanian immigrants Markelis was raised during the 1960s and 1970s in a household where Lithuanian was the first language White Field Black Sheep derives much of its charm from this collision of old world and new a tough but cultured generation that can't quite understand the ways of America and a younger one weaned on Barbie dolls and The Brady Bunch Hostess cupcakes and comic books The Monkees and Captain Kangaroo Throughout Markelis recalls the amusing contortions of language and identity that animated her childhood She also humorously recollects the touchstones of her youth from her First Communion to her first game of Twister Ultimately she revisits the troubles that surfaced in the wake of her assimilation into American culture the constricting expectations of her family and community her problems with alcoholism and depression and her sometimes contentious but always loving relationship with her mother Deftly recreating the emotional world of adolescence but overlaying it with the hard won understanding of adulthood White Field Black Sheep is a poignant and moving memoir a lively tale of this Lithuanian American life The Photomontages of Hannah Höch Hannah Höch, Peter W. Boswell, Maria Martha Makela, Carolyn Lanchner, Kristin Makhholm, 1996 Here in the first comprehensive survey of her work by an American museum authors Peter Boswell Maria Makela and Carolyn Lanchner survey the full scope of Höch's half century of experimentation in photomontage from her politically charged early works and intimate psychological portraits of the Weimar era to her later forays into surrealism and abstraction Pictures and Tears James Elkins, 2005-08-02 Art Does art leave you cold And is that what it's supposed to do Or is a painting meant to move you to tears Hemingway was reduced to tears in the midst of a drinking bout when a painting by James Thurber caught his eye And what's bad about that In Pictures and Tears art historian James Elkins tells the story of paintings that have made people cry Drawing upon anecdotes related to individual works of art he provides a chronicle of how people have shown emotion

role of imagination so important in art Illustrated with carefully chosen colour and black and white plates of examples from Michaelangelo to Matisse and Poussin to Pollock Revealing Art takes us on a compelling and provocative journey Kieran explores some of the most important questions we can ask ourselves about art how can art inspire us or disgust us Is artistic judgement simply a matter of taste Can art be immoral or obscene and should it be censored He brings such abstract issues to life with fascinating discussions of individual paintings photographs and sculptures such as Michelangelo's Pieta Andres Serrano's Piss Christ and Francis Bacon's powerful paintings of the Pope He also suggests some answers to problems that any one in an art gallery or museum is likely to ask themselves what is a beautiful work of art and can art really reveal something true about our own nature Revealing Art is ideal for anyone interested in debates about art today or who has simply stood in front of a painting and felt baffled

Paris 1919 Margaret MacMillan, 2007-12-18 A landmark work of narrative history Paris 1919 is the first full scale treatment of the Peace Conference in more than twenty five years It offers a scintillating view of those dramatic and fateful days when much of the modern world was sketched out when countries were created Iraq Yugoslavia Israel whose troubles haunt us still Winner of the Samuel Johnson Prize Winner of the PEN Hessel Tiltman Prize Winner of the Duff Cooper Prize Between January and July 1919 after the war to end all wars men and women from around the world converged on Paris to shape the peace Center stage for the first time in history was an American president Woodrow Wilson who with his Fourteen Points seemed to promise to so many people the fulfillment of their dreams Stern intransigent impatient when it came to security concerns and wildly idealistic in his dream of a League of Nations that would resolve all future conflict peacefully Wilson is only one of the larger than life characters who fill the pages of this extraordinary book David Lloyd George the gregarious and wily British prime minister brought Winston Churchill and John Maynard Keynes Lawrence of Arabia joined the Arab delegation Ho Chi Minh a kitchen assistant at the Ritz submitted a petition for an independent Vietnam For six months Paris was effectively the center of the world as the peacemakers carved up bankrupt empires and created new countries This book brings to life the personalities ideals and prejudices of the men who shaped the settlement They pushed Russia to the sidelines alienated China and dismissed the Arabs They struggled with the problems of Kosovo of the Kurds and of a homeland for the Jews The peacemakers so it has been said failed dismally above all they failed to prevent another war Margaret MacMillan argues that they have unfairly been made the scapegoats for the mistakes of those who came later She refutes received ideas about the path from Versailles to World War II and debunks the widely accepted notion that reparations imposed on the Germans were in large part responsible for the Second World War Praise for Paris 1919 It's easy to get into a war but ending it is a more arduous matter It was never more so than in 1919 at the Paris Conference This is an enthralling book detailed fair unfailingly lively Professor MacMillan has that essential quality of the historian a narrative gift Allan Massie The Daily Telegraph London
