appeal among various ethnic groups He examines in detail eight recent manifestations of the genre all praised by critics while uniformly misidentified as novels Nagel proposes that the short story cycle with its concentric as opposed to linear plot development possibilities lends itself particularly well to exploring themes of ethnic assimilation which mirror some of the major issues facing American society today

Feminism, Literature and Rape Narratives Sorcha Gunne, Zoe Brigley Thompson, 2012-08-06 The essays in this volume discuss narrative strategies employed by international writers when dealing with rape and sexual violence whether in fiction poetry memoir or drama In developing these new feminist readings of rape narratives the contributors aim to incorporate arguments about trauma and resistance in order to establish new dimensions of healing This book makes a vital contribution to the fields of literary studies and feminism since while other volumes have focused on retroactive portrayals of rape in literature to date none has focused entirely on the subversive work that is being done to retheorize sexual violence Split into four sections the volume considers sexual violence from a number of different angles Subverting the Story considers how the characters of the victim and rapist might be subverted in narratives of sexual violence In Metaphors for Resistance the essays explore how writers approach the subject of rape obliquely using metaphors to represent their suffering and pain The controversy of not speaking about sexual violence is the focus of The Protest of Silence while The Question of the Visual considers the problems of making sexual violence visible in the poetic image in film and on stage These four sections cover an impressive range of world writing which includes curriculum staples like Toni Morrison Sarah Kane Sandra Cisneros Yvonne Vera and Sharon Olds

Encyclopedia of the American Novel Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Praise for the print edition no other reference work on American fiction brings together such an array of authors and texts as this

Violence in the Contemporary American Novel James Richard Giles, 2000 Framing his study with two cases of violence involving children in Chicago he notes the degree to which violence in the novels is perpetrated by adults against children or even more shockingly by children against children
